THE CLASS PROPHECY

Paul Nash was sitting leisurely in the office chair of the Nash Mental Institution. He looked up to see his favorite patient Bobby Mullins. Bobby had been his chief case now for several months, having gone insane over Muriel McClintock. Quickly disposing of Bobby, he was ready to receive, as a visitor, a famous dancer, our own Rebecca Barksdale!

"Why Rebecca, how nice to see you!" exclaimed Paul. "I have heard of your famous dancing school in New York and I'm glad you have done so well. Seeing you makes me wonder about our former classmates of '47. Do you happen to know how any of them are getting along in the world?" "Why, yes," answered Rebecca, "I was reading the other day about the old fashioned restaurant Betty and Nancy, the Jackson sisters have opened. Their staff consists of Virginia Harman and Frances Durham. I'm pleased they have accomplished so much since their start at Graham's Cafeteria and Louise Angles is head nurse at the St. Lukes Hospital. Marie Devor now has as her chief interest in the welfare of the Kent Cab Company," added Rebecca.

"Did you receive an invitation to the opening of the Dick Fuqua and Jeannette Barnett Art School?" asked Paul. "I always knew they would be outstanding some day. But say, here I am just rattling on and not giving you a chance to say anything."

"Oh, yes, the same old Paul, always talking," sighed Rebecca.

"I heard that several of our former classmates are teaching at Graham now," Rebecca added. "David Amburn developed into an excellent typing teacher; Alyce Robertson teaches shorthand; Jack Dalton followed in his father's footsteps and is teaching chemistry, and Sarah Perdue is their capable librarian. Kent Ruble replaced Mrs. Damron as algebra instructor, and they have an excellent Latin teacher, the Professor Billy Rees. Nancy Yost is the girls' basketball coach and Phyllis Simpkins is the musical instructor."

"Oh, yes, about that Joe Ernest and David Beverly?" inquired Paul.

"Why, Paul, didn't you know that both drive the city dump trucks," asked Rebecca.

"Helen McCormick and Betty Poteet attended Bluefield College. Christine Harry finally moved over in Gossip Bottom, and Catherine Jessee went to McLains," added Rebecca.

"Another member of our class, Ralph Bowling, is the president of the Speech Society of Chicago. He has as members: Ralph Browning, Lewis Whitman, and James Wallace," replied Rebecca.

"I heard Bluefield, Virginia, has another flourishing new business," stated Paul. "It is the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Goodwin. Mrs. Goodwin was the former Miss Queteen Kiser.

"Did you know that Eathelie Fife and Arlene Anderson have positions as skating instructors at the White Kitchen Skating Rink?" added Rebecca.

"You remember 'Frankie' Neal don't you?" inquired Rebecca, "Well, she and Paul Scott finally married and they now have a large farm on the Tazewell Road. Betty Beavers and Johnny Mattox are their nearby neighbors."

"How is Kenneth Walker getting along with his new newspaper job?" asked Paul.

"Kenneth is now the editor of the Daily Telegraph. He has come a long way since he was editor of the Graham Atom," answered Rebecca. "He is assisted by Ray Durham and Alfred Minton. Sue Hawks is the society editor."

"Did you know that 'Jody' Wysor and Gerald Crabtree are both admirals in the navy?" asked Paul,

"What ever happened to Clyde 'Lank' Wysor?" inquired Rebecca.

THE CLASS PROPHECY

"Well, 'Lank' is still at Graham. He still has hopes of becoming principal. 'Lank' was always optimistic anyway," sighed Rebecca.

"If you're ever down Falls Mills, you should stop and see some of your old classmates there. Emily Ruth McKenzie married Jim Hale and they are now the proud operators of the Hale Dairy.

"I think 'Millie' Muncy still lives there also. Alvin finally got out of the army and they are married. 'Millie' was formerly employed as secretary to S. S. Kresges," added Rebecca.

"Isn't it exciting having an old classmate being crowned Miss America?" inquired Rebecca. "I was referring to Lois Kinzer of course."

"Did you get to see Muriel McClintock before she left for Cuba?" asked Paul.

"You have heard of the new drug store in Bluefield, Virginia haven't you? Well, Mary Frances Yost is the proud owner, and Margaret Landreth is her secretary. David Hoge is the new doctor there. He specializes in broken heart cases. His most loyal patient is Frances Harman," added Rebecca.

"Joyce Hoops and Shirley Belcher live in Tazewell. Shirley married the promising young postmaster. Joyce Leffel made her fortune in the auto business there also," replied Rebecca.

At this point Rebecca happened to realize just how long her visit had been. She hastily arose to leave. She remembered they were a nice class and excellent singers also.

THE CLASS HISTORY

CHAPTER I—FRESHMEN

On a bright September morning in nineteen hundred and forty-three a band of eager freshmen launched on a high school career. There were approximately 115 of us to start, but a few of us fell by the wayside. Perhaps no class of Graham High School has lived through more exciting or history making times. We were young, it is true, but we did realize that things were taking place which would shape all our destinies. Our faithful sponsors, Mrs. Presley and Miss Riggsby, must have been sorely tried at times, but they remained patient and wise counsellors. Under the leadership of our class president, Bob Dishman, we did our patriotic bit by selling and buying war stamps and bonds. At the close of the term, to our amazement, most of us became sophomores.

CHAPTER II—SOPHOMORES

In the fall of '44 we entered G. H. S. as sophomores. The war still raged and at times it seemed it would never end. Many of us waited anxiously for news of friends or relatives. We began to grow up in the year of '44, to realize that life wasn't all fun. Mrs. Presley and Mrs. Gillenwater were our able sponsors and Dick Fuqua was our class president, who led in many of our school activities. Each year found us losing and adding new members. In our sophomore year, Phyllis Simpkins, Anne Akers, and Jack Dalton, came to our class. When the school term closed, the goal ahead—that of becoming juniors—was now a reality.

CHAPTER III—JUNIORS

September, nineteen hundred and forty-five, found us starting on our career as juniors. This proved to be our busiest year in high school, as there were so many things to be done besides our lessons. Mrs. Wetzel and Miss Robinson were our sponsors and helped us over many a rough spot. The class play "The Orchid Limousine" was a huge success. The funds derived from this helped make the Junior-Senior banquet and prom a very delightful affair.

Many boys who had been in the service returned to school. Most of them had been overseas, and had many stories of interest to tell.

Our year as juniors had been a successful one, and we left school looking forward to becoming "dignified" seniors.

CHAPTER IV—SENIORS

This closing chapter is difficult to write—so much to be said that must be left unsaid—so many friends to say goodbye to. Our four years together have been gay and sad in turn, but we shall always cherish the memories they bring. We owe much to our sponsors, Mrs. Wetzel and Mrs. Damron, and perhaps the fact that most of us will graduate, will repay them in small measure. Our activities this year included publishing "THE GRAHAM ATOM" once a month, Kenneth Walker being editor, sponsoring an annual, and presenting the senior play. To our group this year came Bobby Mullins, David Beverly, Patsy Coleman, and Queteen Kiser. We also have a group of returned G. I.'s, namely Clyde Wysor, David Amburn, Kenneth Walker, Ralph Bowling, and Joe Ernest. Looking back we can say "Nothing is left now but majestic memory."

PHYLLIS SIMPKINS, LOIS KINZER

THE CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Graham High School, realizing that the parting day is nigh and we must part with the beloved valuables that we have so many years treasured, do hereby dispose of them in the following manner making all previous wills null and void.

To our most cherished sponsors, Mrs. Kathleen Damron and Mrs. Louise Wetzel, we leave our undying love and appreciation for they will play a big part in later years' reminiscences of our high school days.

To our principal, Mr. T. M. Gillespie, we leave our precious book, entitled HOW TO ESCAPE PRISON, as we no longer have use for it. It has taken us eleven years to learn these facts.

To the faculty, we leave only our memories because half the fun of an experience is thinking back over it years later.

To the present juniors and future seniors, we leave our ability to sing well in assembly.

We, the Senior Class, dispose of our possessions as follows:

Louise Angles wills her ability to make lettuce sandwiches in the cafeteria to Vivian Crigger, who specializes in that sort of work.

Since she is so fond of Chico, Muriel McClintock does not wish to will him, but she would like to leave her favorite record, "New Spanish Two-Step" to Jeanne Van Dyke.

David Beverly leaves his right to loaf in the drug store to "Homer" Baldwin.

Arlene Anderson leaves her roller-skates to Phyllis Wyrick.

Gerald Crabtree leaves his reserved table at the pool room to Pierce Devor, and his bright yellow tie to Harold Robinson.

Betty Beavers wills her "oomph" to Janice Beard.

So Dorothy Tolbert may get along with the teachers, Patsy Coleman wills her sweet disposition to her.

Catherine Jessee wills her home-ward rides on Black Diamond trucks to Betty Sturges.

Margaret Landreth wishes to dispose of her big-mouth by giving it to Peggy Harvey.

Rebecca Barksdale wills her love and desire to be an actress to Gloria Andes, and her New York hair-styles to Nancy French.

Eathelie Fife wills her "Lana Turner hair" to anyone who wants it.

Frances Harman, against her will, leaves her diamond ring to Margaret Tiller.

Kenneth "Poppy" Walker would like to leave his masculine physique and ability to make himself heard to Emmette Shufflebarger, so he may successfully lead the cheers next year.

Betty Jackson leaves her date book filled with Colin to Edith Hall.

Nancy Yost leaves her ability to perform on the basketball court to Nancy Long.

Mary Helen McCormick leaves her pepso-dent smile to Sara Crabtree.

Joe Ernest wills his "Spike" in his football shoes to Annette Leftwich, or would she rather have his "Kerley" hair?

Alyce Robertson leaves her ability to talk like Miss Connelly to Elizabeth Neel.

James Wallace leaves his "Corney" jokes to Bob Cyphers.

Ray Durham leaves his sincerity to Roy McGrady.

Betty Poteet gives her "peaches and cream" complexion to Marie Folks.

David Hoge wills his afternoon walks with Barbara Morgan to Emmette Shufflebarger.

Alfred Minton leaves his "Lead-head" to Joe Coon.

Sue Hawks wills her questions and answers to June Akers.

Mildred Muncy wills her army dates to Maxine McKenzie.

Ralph Browning leaves his artistic ability to George Deaton.

Christine Harry would like to leave her brown eyes to Phyllis Anderson.

Dick Fuqua leaves his inspiring arguments with Mrs. Wetzel in English to anyone who dares to express his opinion.

Clyde "Lank" Wysor leaves his title as "Swoon King" to Larry Ernest.

Phyllis Simpkins leaves her musical ability to Peggy Steele.

THE CLASS WILL

Marie Devor wills her front seat in the Kent cab to Betty Sue Bates.

Jeannette Barnett wills her dignified ways to Norma Hawks.

Lewis Whitman wills his wolfish ways to "Poochie" Van Dyke.

Lois Kinzer and Shirley Belcher wish to leave their way with the under-classmen to Peggy Christian and Helen Hodock.

Joe Wysor leaves his position as carnival king to Norman Robertson.

Mary Frances Yost wills her bills at the drug store to Sara Crabtree, but prefers to keep her Bill at Pippens.

Frances Durham wills her flaming locks to Bonnie Collins.

Nancy Jackson and Joyce Hoops will their Tazewell boy-friends to Joanne Caldwell and Virginia Fox.

Kent Ruble leaves his ability to prevaricate himself out of "jams" to Tom Mitchell.

Sarah Perdue wills her stubborn ways to Carleen Haun.

Frankie Neal does not wish to will anything, as she is afraid the girls may think it includes Paul Ed.

Emily Ruth McKenzie wills her future as a dairy-maid to Jackie Morgan.

Billy Rees renders his nickname, "Betsy" to "Potty" Lawson.

Bobby Mullins wills his ability as the biggest pest of Graham High School to Roy Burge, and his seat in chemistry class to Larry Ernest.

Ralph Bowling wills his "hot-chocolate" to Joyce Lefler.

Dave Amburn wills his "possum" dog to Leon McClintock.

Eddie Goodwin wills his love for George and his motor-cycle to "Shorty" Crabtree.

Joy Leffel leaves her French book to Charlie Hale.

We do hereby appoint as the executor of our last will and testament, Mr. T. M. Gillespie.

In witness thereof, we, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and forty-seven this the 28th day of May one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven do set our hand and seal.
